

I will be affected by the 8% proposed price rise in water by Central Highlands Water. I was not aware of any public meeting to discuss this issue. I only by chance saw it on the Win News, now I have finally found the website I am now unable to locate where I can submit a complaint against this price hike. Which is most probably why there has been a lack of public response to this issue!