

Brooke McDonald submission

Why should anyone have to pay$10 to prebook a taxi.

I have enough trouble paying for my transport as a disabled person as anyone.

Surely the best way to solve the taxi issue is to allow more hire cars to pick up disabled people and to allow them to use their half fare card with a driver of choice.

The taxi industry is toxic and nothing has been done for us and now you want to price us out of the market

So sad
